COMMENTS AFTER ALLOWANCE: CORRECTION OF INVENTORSHIP

REQUESTED, BUT NOT ENTERED

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

Applicants previously requested Correction of Inventorship in the submission of the Second Preliminary Amendment. The filing of the Request and Second Preliminary Amendment was made on March 29, 2005. A copy of the Request for Correction of Inventorship and Second Preliminary Amendment is enclosed with this communication for the convenience of the Patent Office. The enclosed correction of inventorship was requested in light of the amended claim scope, as set forth in the second preliminary amendment. Said request for correction of inventorship was timely filed with the second preliminary amendment.

Applicants respectfully request that entry of the correction of inventorship, as set forth in the original request. The correction of inventorship requires deletion of all inventors except Timothy Alan Shepherd (a copy enclosed herewith). Applicants submit that no patent term should be deducted, as the request to correct inventorship was timely filed at the time of amendment and prior to the first action on the merits.

Applicants request consideration of these comments, entry of the correction of inventorship, and prompt passage of the case to issuance.

Respectfully submitted,
